A double header retirement dinner was held at Grayling's Penn Inn April 27th. Mr. Ernest Larson and Mr. George A. Hilton are honored by their fellow employees and friends from Camp Grayling and Lansing upon their retirement. They retired from their positions at Camp Grayling on April 30 after a combination of over 60 years of state service. Mr. Billy J. Kinkert, Camp Superintendent, was master of ceremonies and introduced Major General Clarence C. Schnipke, The Adjutant General of Michigan. General Schnipke praised the two retirees for their long and faithful service and also injected, in his talk to the group, a praise for all the employees at Grayling. He said that he has gotten nothing but high praise from the commanders of troops that have been training weekends at Camp Grayling recently for the fine job being done by camp employees. General Schnipke presented Mr. Larson and Mr. Hilton with the Adjutant General's Commendation Certificate. Other officials from Lansing who attended the event were: Brigadier General Carson R. Neifert, The Quartermaster General of Michigan, and Colonel William M. Peterson, United States Property and Fiscal Officer for Michigan.

Woman's Club In 50th Celebration

The fiftieth anniversary of the Grayling Woman's Club was celebrated with a dinner at the Masonic Temple Monday evening, May 2nd.

Mrs. Truettner mentioned that the club was a civic, not a social organization, listed some of the club projects and said a complete report of its accomplishments would be released at a later date.

The chairman introduced the past presidents who were present: Mrs. T. P. Peterson, 1918, Mrs. Esbern Olson, 1919, Mrs. Edward Pentty of Grand Rapids, 1922, Mrs. Bert Norris, 1923, Mrs. Herhut Sorenson, 1929, Mrs. Emil Giegling, 1930, Mrs. Roy Milnes, 1932, Mrs. Walter Truettner, 1938-39, Mrs. Joseph Stripe, 1944, Mrs. Earl Burns, 1946-47, Mrs. Thomas Robertson, 1949, Mrs. A. Mr. Earl Hill, of Jackson, of the Consumers Power Company, was the guest speaker and chose for his topic "The Pursuit of Happiness." He explored happiness as a feeling of joy and contentment and something to be experienced along life's way. He stated that people who are happier than those who react. He recommended that one ought to listen and learn—all the facts before jumping to a conclusion. He said that tolerance and a good sense of humor are necessary ingredients for happiness also doing for others. Mrs. Hill was present and was presented a gift from Mrs. Hatt.

Mrs. Holcomb acknowledged the receipt of a golden certificate and a scroll from the State and National Federation of Women's Clubs which she presented to Mrs. Hatt. Michigan History Has "Hit The Road"

Michigan culture has "hit the road."

No longer is it necessary for persons to travel long distances to visit their favorite museum, art gallery, or library. Nowadays, "culture" is portable... on wheels so that everyone can enjoy historical displays, fine paintings, and great books.

Residents of this area will have an opportunity to visit a truly unique mobile attraction soon when the Michigan Historical Commission's Historymobile comes to town.

The huge 10 foot by 54 foot museum on wheels will arrive in Grayling on May 13th. It will be located at New Grayling Elementary School and will be on display from Saturday, May 14th through Tuesday, May 17th. The Historymobile will be open daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. There is no admission charge.

According to Secretary of State James M. Hare, the Historymobile is valued at more than $50,000. It was developed entirely through cooperation of 22 Michigan businesses and industries which contributed equipment and supplies.

The 19 colorful and informative displays housed in the mobile museum were prepared in a cooperative effort by 14 Michigan museums.

Assisting the Michigan Historical Commission Museum in this project were: the Cranbrook Institute of Science; Dearborn Historical Museum; Detroit Historical Museum; Dossin Great Lakes Museum; the Exhibits Museum at the University of Michigan; Fort Wayne Military Museum; Grand Rapids Public Museum; Hartwick Pines State Park Interpretive Center; the Henry Ford Museum; Kalama Public Museum; Mackinac Island State Park Commission; Manistee County Historical Society Museum; and the Michigan State University Museum.

Hare, whose department has taken over functions of the Michigan Historical Commission under state reorganization, said each of the museums were responsible for the development and installation of one or more of the 19 exhibit topics which had been selected to interpret Michigan's history from prehistoric times to the present.

"Although several states operate similar traveling exhibits, the Michigan Historymobile is the first in the country to feature such an extensive cooperative display," said Solan Weeks, director of the Michigan Historical Commission Museum and coordinator of the Historymobile project.

"The uniqueness of the Michigan Historymobile was nationally recognized last year when the American Association for state and local history voted the Michigan Historical Commission an award of merit for the unusual cooperative way the Historymobile was developed."

Displays in the mobile museum are arranged chronologically. They cover topics such as prehistoric man in Michigan, French exploration and the fur trade, the British era, Michigan becomes American, the territorial period, migration to Michigan, Michigan becomes a state, development of mineral resources, water transportation, rail-

Broadway Musical To Be Presented May 20 - 21

Members of the Grayling High School Concert Choir, as well as many other members of the student body have been busy at work for the past two months preparing for the production of the Broadway musical "BRIGADOON" which they will present on Friday and Saturday, May 20 and 21. Brigadoon is no ordinary run of the mill high school production; it is one of the finest musical shows that has ever been produced in America. Brigadoon first appeared on Broadway in March of 1947 where it was acclaimed by critics as being the finest musical written for the American stage up to that time. Brigadoon was the first musical to receive the Drama Critics' Circle Award. Since its opening on Broadway in 1947 Brigadoon has been made into a motion picture, has been revived on Broadway twice, and has toured the entire world with several traveling companies.

Alan J. Larner and Frederick

Loewe, the composers of Brigadoon, have many other Broadway musicals to their credit, "My Fair Lady" and "Camelot" to name two. They are also the composers of the motion picture "Gigi." Work on the total production of this fine musical has gone to extreme so that the people of this community and the surrounding

Had a note from Mary Montour Bixler and it reminded me that we have the Montour girls in our midst. Seven of them to be exact: Marguerite, 1928, Fedora, 1924, Genevieve, 1928, Bernadette, 1931, Mary, 1937, Patricia, 1939, Joan, 1942.

Did you know that we mailed out over 1,100 invitations last year? That we recorded 66 memberships and collected $51.50 in our Student Loan Fund? Our directors had a loan of the GHS Alumni sponsoring a real worthwhile project—not just social. After 5 years we have $495.50 period.

Our most sincere thanks to all who worked as secretaries for their classes again this year. They have helped us complete our mailing lists in a most efficient manner.

Somewhat I overlooked Patrick Cox when I mentioned our Alumni teachers. I apologize. Glad to know that someone reads our column.

Remember Poppy Day!

Poppy Day observance was established shortly after World War I and has grown to be our most treasured tradition. Poppies that will be worn by the Grayling Legion Auxiliary on May 19-20-21 have been crafted by disabled veterans and the contributions made by generous Americans on Poppy Day are used exclusively to aid disabled veterans, their widows and their fatherless children.

Wearing a poppy distinguishes any American as one who remembers the dead price paid for our freedom and freedom we are enjoying in our time. The American Legion Auxiliary members all over the United States provide the material and flowers for making the poppies and all work in connection with the annual event is on a volunteer basis. More than one-half million poppies have been distributed by the American Legion Auxiliary workers throughout the United States in four decades. So be a Poppy, buy and wear a poppy. CLEAN-UP, PAINT-UP, FIX-UP

May 6th there will be a meeting of all area workers on the Clean Up campaign in the Housing Commission office at the City Hall. This will give us a chance to make a progress report and also discuss any problems we are facing. Again many thanks to the volunteers who are working on the Clean up and to all of you who are making such a marked improvement.

If you can't attend the Friday p. m. meeting, please phone in some of your accomplishments before hand. Phone 348-9314.

The City trucks will pick up a gain on May 9th and 10th so put your rubbish by the curb on Sunday evening.

April 28th Arnie Mauren, Leon Rochette and Lora Gould were in Lansing to attend the Keep Michigan Beautiful conference at Kellogg Center. Grayling was honored as one of the six Michigan Cities to win a Distinguished Achievement Award for Clean up by Mr. Richard Hackendahl, the National Director from Washington. Mrs. William Millikin, wife of the Lt. Governor, and Mrs. Robert McNamara, wife of the Secretary of Defense, from Washington were two of the principal speakers.

Grayling has made wonderful progress to date. Let's not stop now. Following is an article from the Communicator, a monthly magazine on Clean up put out from the National Headquarters, which is of interest to us here in Grayling as we again plan to enter the National contest.

The article states, "Most often, overlooked by participants in the National Cleanest Town Achievement contest, and by the public and press as well, is the real meaning of the awards presented.

Emphasis is most often wrongly placed on the words, "Cleanest Town" while immediately following word "Achievement" is usually ignored. The lesson to be understood and learned is that the awards are based on achievement towards an ideal. The ideal is the National Cleanest Town, but the award is always presented on the basis of movement up the ladder.

GRAYLING REGIONAL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Memo: To the People of Crawford County.
From: Sal Truettner, President
Subject: You Should Belong

After writing the articles about the duties of the Chamber, I was asked by an individual, "How does all this affect me? I am not in business. The Chamber does nothing for me and means nothing to me." I am glad this question was asked. Here is my answer (Not just to the one who asked the question but to everyone in Grayling and Crawford County).

YOU LIVE HERE. Maybe you don't own a business. Then you have a job or are retired. But it all boils down that you live here and you must be satisfied or you wouldn't stay. This then is your community just as much as it is the business man's community. And speaking of businessmen, we have a pretty swell group.

Our town has had a lot of publicity in the last few years because of the beauty of the flowers planted along the highway. Who do you think pays for most of these flowers? Why the business man, and plants run high. Over $400 each year. (We have had some donations from citizens who appreciate the flowers.)

the flowers at no cost to you and say "This is my town and I'm proud of it."

At Christmas time the businessmen all chip in and buy extra lights and decorations to add to those that the city has. This is a very expensive project. Yet you can go down town, watch the lights blink at no cost to you and say "This is my town and I'm proud of it."

Whether you believe it or not the Chamber has done a lot to push Grayling. The town has come a long way in the last 15 years. Ask some of the old timers who live here. We have three excellent schools, a wonderful hospital, good churches, a new library, a new city hall, industry and new businesses. Isn't this progress? And we think it is going to continue to grow.

A few years ago, it could have gone the other way. Ghost towns don't happen just in the west. They can happen anywhere and they are not pretty to see. In fact in the Sunday edition of the Bay City paper, April 3rd, an article entitled "Town dies slowly" was written about a little town not too far from here. It had once been a thriving little community but not now. This could have been Grayling.

Dinner Honors Ernest Larson and George Hilton On Their Retirement

Ernest L. Larson was born March 5, 1908 to Carl and Myrtle Larson in Grayling. He graduated from Grayling High School in June of 1926, and in March of 1928 completed a correspondence course in Applied Business at Kalamazoo Business College. Ernie was married to Elsie M. Burke on June 1, 1932. They have three children, Ronald E., presently employed at the Field Training Equipment Concentration Site and a member of the Michigan National Guard, Judith Arlene, now Mrs. Vern Esenberg of Kalamazoo, and Gerald Leroy, also at the Field Training Equipment Concentration Site. The Larsons are grandparents to six, four girls and two boys.

After graduation Ernie worked as a gas station attendant at the Burke Garage, as a lumber grader for Kerry and Hanson Flooring Company, and for the cement construction company that poured the main street of Grayling.

It was while he was employed by the cement firm that Colonel John Erkes Warehouse Supervisor, approached him with a job offer and in May, 1929 Ernie-Larson began his career with the Department of Military Affairs in a clerical capacity in the Warehouse at Camp Grayling. He remained in this capacity until 1942; at that time Colonel Erkes was called to active duty in Selective Service, Lansing, and Ernie was called to duty as a First Lieutenant, State Staff, Michigan State Troops, at Camp Grayling. He attained the rank of Major, State Staff, and operated the Warehouse Section from 1942-48. When the Michigan State Troops were deactivated, Ernie returned to his Civil Service position as supervisor of the Warehouse.

In the fall of 1936, Ernie moved his family from Grayling to one of the residences at Camp Grayling and in 1954, at the time of Colonel Erkes' retirement, moved to the Erkes' residence where he has remained.

In his 37 years with the Department of Military Affairs, Mr. Larson has observed Camp Grayling's growth from the horse and wagon stage to its present highly specialized, mechanized, organization from a few minor buildings in the main camp area to over 500 buildings and thousands of acres of training area—from encampments of 4,000 troops to annual field training of approximately 30,000 men. In the course of these years he has collected many memories. Perhaps the most outstanding of his recollections is that of the night of March 17, 1946, when a flash fire destroyed the Warehouse at Camp Grayling, a brick and wood structure, 40 x 250 feet, housing clothing, medical and ordnance supplies, and equipment. The loss was estimated at approximately $300,000.

Ernie is a member of the Michigan Memorial Church and the Methodist Men's Club. He has been Church School Superintendent and has taught Sunday School for many years as well as singing in the Church choir. He is a member of the Grayling Flying Lodge and served as Worshipful Master in 1936 and 1937. He is also a member of the Fraternal Order of Eagles in Gaylord. At one time he was a member of the Grayling Flying Club, but after his first solo flight decided to keep both feet on the ground thereafter.

Mr. and Mrs. Larson will be moving to their home at 1875 Ausable Trail and extend an invitation to their many friends to visit them—provided they wear working clothes—as he has a full schedule of landscaping and remodeling planned for this summer.

George Hilton was born March 30, 1905 at Mason, Michigan, to Della and Melville Hilton. He graduated from Mason High in June of 1921 and attended Michigan State University for one year. He was married to the former Bernice Corwin on October 15, 1931 in Plymouth. They have three children, Terry who resides with his family in Jacksonville, Florida, Tom, who lives with his family in Portland, Michigan, and Nancy, who lives in Phoenix, Arizona. The Hiltons have nine grandchildren, six girls and three boys.

George first worked for the State of Michigan in 1925 as a tractor operator for the Conservation Department in Roscommon. In the winter of 1925 he went out to National City, California, where he worked as assistant to a tree surgeon. In May of 1926 he began working at Camp Grayling as a tractor operator and maintenance mechanic. George's first supervisor was Henry Boumgaras, then Camp Superintendent. Thus in 1926 he began a 38-year career with the Department of Military Affairs. In the winter months George would return to Lansing and work for the State Highway Department on the survey crews. Summers he would return to Camp Grayling. He served in the Michigan National Guard from 1926 to 1942 and with the Michigan State Troops from 1942 to 1948.

In 1925, George took a fling in private enterprise and bought his own garage in DeWitt. This he operated until 1930 when he sold out to his partner and went to work for the State Automotive Repair and Supply Depot in Lansing and again worked summers at Camp Grayling. In 1932 George moved to Grayling and for a time worked for Corwin Garage and as assistant engineer for the City of Grayling, making a topographical survey of the City. In 1935 he began work in the Warehouse Section under the supervision of Colonel John Erkes, and has continued in that capacity to the present time.

In 1940 George moved his family from Grayling to Building 40 then known as the Bakery Building and now utilized as the Finance Building. Originally Building 40 was to be used to bake bread for troops training at Camp Grayling. In 1942 George moved to Building 103 which had been remodeled into apartments to house four families and there he remained with his family until 1959 when he moved to Chestnut Street in Grayling.

Like Ernie, George has been able to observe Camp Grayling's growth from the time the field artillery was horse-drawn and a cavalry review was staged on the old rifle range to its present annual field training of approximately 30,000 men. When asked if he had any special recollections he said, "In retrospect everything was special. It was always something new, different and special every year, and it was all important."

Concerning his plans for the future, although he had planned to go fishing Saturday, he knew how much work there was still to be done that weekend and he just couldn't, in good conscience, go trout fishing without first helping get out the monthly reports, and so he volunteered to go back to camp and work. This perhaps best exemplifies George's attitude throughout his many years of faithful and conscientious service.

Economic Opportunity Loan Increases Family Income

An Economic Opportunity Loan from the Lake City Office of the Farmers Home Administration boosted one rural Wexford County resident's income from $1,832 a year to more than $4,000 a year.

This type of loan is important to the area served by the Lake City office. According to the census report the population of Missaukee County dropped from 7,438 in 1950 to 6,784 in 1960; Wexford County only gained 151 residents in the same 10 years. Many more people will stay in Northern Michigan if they have an opportunity to earn a decent living.

Some examples of the types of loans made to individuals in Michigan during 1965 are: Bait and boat rental, Custom gardening, Repairing and upholstering furniture, Cabinet work and carpenter, Cutting pulpwood, Logging operations, Trucking and Saw sharpening.

Economic Opportunity loans may be made in amounts up to $2,500. The loans bear 4 1/2% interest. To be eligible for this credit program, an individual applicant must live in a rural area which includes towns up to 5,500 population, be unable to obtain credit from other sources, show a reasonable promise of succeeding in the enterprise, and have a low income.

The FHA office of Lake City has made loans totaling $23,310 of which $2,088 has been repaid. This testifies to Sargent Shriver's statement that the EO program is an unpublishable and unsung part of the War on Poverty.

The Lake City office serves Crawford, Missaukee, Roscommon and Wexford Counties. Office days are every Monday in Lake City and Wednesday mornings in the Roscommon Court House.

The Forest . . .

What is a forest? This is a question that commands multitude of answers — all of them true, but no one of them adequate. Man has known the forest ever since he knew anything at all, but over the ages its role in his life has been one of constant change, growth and recovery.

The forest is among the most majestic offerings of nature — a place for rumination, for the healing of wounds, for a reconstitution of the mind and the body, a place for hiking, camping, and ancient sports.

A forest, silent and empty as it may seem, abounds with life. It is home, sanctuary and rest for an infinite number of living beings. The forest is fertile, pulsing, dynamic, charged with energy.

The forest has served man well ever since he came to being on this globe. It has been the source of the boards that provide him a means of creating shelter, logs and deadfall that feed his fires.

Now, in our own amazing time, the forest much more. It is the ancient foundation on which one of the most advanced and exciting of our industries is based. That industry is wood products. The tree, transformed by the miracles of chemistry, is the raw material from which thousands of products, used by all of us come. Modern living and working standards are more dependent on the forest than most of us realize.

But will our forests survive, in the light of the tremendous demands made upon them? They will — because of tree farms and sustained yield planning which sees to it that the new growth equals or even exceeds the harvest. The forest's service to man is eternal.

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO

April 29, 1943

Crawford county's quota of $80,000 for the second war bond drive is fast nearing its close. At the present time the bond sale barometer has reached a total of $47,592.25. These figures were compiled Tuesday noon. Chairman John Bruun and his committee are hoping the public will make every effort to reach the quota before the final minutes of the drive.

Everyone who was at the bond party and auction last February will remember what a great time he or she had. There will be another tonight, as T. Hanson says, "it will be bigger and better than ever before." He says there will be more prizes offered and a lot better ones than before. Of course T will be the auctioneer and that means there will be a lot of fun for everyone. And there will be dancing for those who desire. But the big thing isn't just having a grand time, not getting a lot of valuable prizes for almost nothing, but to Buy Bonds. The committee in charge says they will have the bonds right there ready for delivery to the purchaser.

Mrs. Mabel Armstrong is at home after spending the winter with her daughter in Farmington.

MOOSE LODGE ACTIVITIES

Coming events in the near future are the Legion of the Moose Club breakfast meeting this Sunday, May 8th at 11:00 a. m. and Saturday, May 14th, the District meeting at Cadillac, at 8:00 p. m.

We have some other special events coming up in the very near future, but full details are not yet available. Members will be notified by mail as soon as details are completed, of one event at least.

The degree team is starting to get more calls again, and it is rumored that they will have the honor of doing the degree work at the U. P. convention, in September. They are scheduled to do an enrollment at Dearborn Lodge the latter part of May. Dearborn is the largest lodge in the state.

According to early estimates, the mid-winter conference in November could very easily go beyond the estimated five hundred persons that will be attending.

A local member, Bill Fitzgerald has been asked by Mooseheart Board of Governors to be an auditor for the fraternity. However, Bill doesn't know if he will accept yet, as it involves a lot of traveling, and being away from home.

A reminder to Legion Club members, that wives may attend the breakfast meeting, and this Sunday.

THE HALL TREE

(By Esther Hall)

April wouldn't be complete without a fish story. Mrs. Patricia (Pat) Pitsenberger of Pontiac (daughter of Ruby Jennings Beckman) took the prize in the 17 inch German Brown whopper! They kid Pat about the way she baits a hook, but it seems the fish don't know anything funny about it. With fishermen to the right, and to the left, and even across the river from her, she looks this 17 inch German Brown whopper! What to do to bait it in she doesn't know her father (deceased) had warned her not to lay her rod on the ground, where it would get into the reel she was considering jumping in the river to bring in her prize, when some of these Sir Galahads about her (who wouldn't help a lady bait a hook) came to her rescue, and helped her land it! And wouldn't you know one of them even took a picture of Pat's husband Dan holding the fish! He carried it to Al Harland's cabin, not fishing at the time but helping with some work here Pat couldn't take time out to carry her prize to safe-keeping, he just had to continue fishing, with no further luck who needs it? The fish was taken home to show off, but went into the frying pan next morning.

The first of the month the Jack all family of Russell, N. Y. came for a week's visit, for Easter and is mother's birthday. Jack is a nurse at Ogdensburg State Hospital, and Loretta, though a nurse, is social worker out of the county and at Canton Skeeter is 10 years old and just lives for baseball.

when here. He doesn't have any boys nearby to chum with, living in the foothills of the Adirondack Mountains on great-grampa's old farm especially since big brother Steve joined the Navy (taking up nursing too). Sherrie is 11 years old, and is satisfied to spend her time with girls, big or small. They brought maple syrup made from their own trees, expected to make more on their return. Also chops and steaks from their own pork. They hunt on their own land, got 3 deer last season (I've heard there's bears and wildcats in their back acres). They are modernizing the old home in their spare time. "If you want to rough it, come along," Jack says.

The Whitey Someros and son Alan of Lincoln Park, Pitsenberger, Ruby Beckman of Troy, Al and Elaine Harland of Wixom, and his mother Eva Harland of Ferndale, came in to time to see Jack. Shortly after, Joe and Allie Raymaker of Bay City brought up her mother, Grace Gokey, and Aunt Alice See of Romeo, that day being Allie's birthday. Pitsenberger opened up their cabin at Kalkaska, Beckmans at South Boardman, Sees at Lake Margrethe, Harlands on Beaver Island on the AuSable, and Someros in town.

Some of the ladies picked arbutus, which sounds sort of a tame pastime... but lovely.

Awards To Four Paul Bunyan Council Scouters

The Paul Bunyan Scout Council is now 15 years old. A recognition banquet was held in the Dow Corning Cafeteria Wednesday, April 27, celebrating 15 years of operation. Approximately 250 Scouters and their wives attended from all of the districts of the seven county area.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Roland C. Puffer, Methodist minister from Indian River, who has been in Scouting for over 40 years.

The opening ceremony was a slide presentation entitled, "Preparing to Serve the Nation." It stressed manpower on all district and council levels that they must carry the torch to those boys who are not members of the Boy Scouts and try and persuade them into becoming members.

All of the wives present were given the Scouters' Wife Award. This is an award given by the National Council in support of the wives understanding to their husbands participation to the Scouting Program. The awards were accepted by Mrs. Albert T. Maasberg.

Mr. Willard L. Mudget led the group in a chorus of songs.

The Trail Blazer awards were presented to members of each district. They were given to the recipients by Past Presidents of the Council. Ernest R. Britton presented the Northland District to Robert Erber of Roscommon, Charles Sapp of West Branch, Donald "Sandy" McBeath, Jr., Ass't. Park Mgr., Hartwick Pines of Roscommon.

Our English Cousin?

The following wire story appeared in the Detroit News one day during the latter part of April. A contributor thought that Grayling readers might be interested.

The story appeared as follows: LONDON, April 25 — "It may sound silly to you but it's a crime," Magistrate Edward Robey told the defendant.

"I was destitute," pleaded Leonard Knibbs. "This was my only means of getting a cup of tea."

Coins tossed into the fountain at Marble Arch immediately became crown property. The monthly haul averages $420.

Knibbs was nabbed after fishing out one halfpenny on a long stick tipped with chewing gum. The sentence: The night he spent in jail awaiting hearing.

County Accidents Cost $1,260,000

NEW YORK — From the point of view of safety, are residents of Crawford County living more hazardous or less so than people in other areas?

Do the records show that the chances of a local resident becoming involved in an accident—fatal or otherwise—are greater or smaller than elsewhere?

The Government's annual vital statistics survey, released by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, shows just what the odds are.

It comes at a time when attention has been focused on the accident problem by President Johnson's message to Congress calling for legislation that would improve safety, especially on the highway.

The Government feels that it must take a hand in the situation because of the mounting toll—107,000 lost in the past year as a result of accidents of all types, including 49,000 due to auto accidents.

The latest official figures from the Public Health Service, covering the year ending January 1, 1964, show that there were 9 fatal accidents among residents of Crawford County, of which 1 were attributed to motor vehicles.

Related to the local population, it represented a rate of 176 fatalities per 100,000 people.

This takes into consideration all accidents involving local residents, irrespective of place of occurrence. Local accidents affecting non-residents were not included.

The local rate was comparatively high. Throughout the United States as a whole, the average toll was 53 per 100,000. In the State of Michigan it was 50.

The enormity of the accident problem is seen in figures from the Public Health Service. They show that more than 50 million persons in the United States received injuries in accidents last year that required medical attention and disabled them for at least a day.

In other words, for every person who dies as the result of an accident, there are some 460 others who sustain less serious injuries. The economic cost to the country, in lost wages, doctor bills, property damage and reduced production, was more than $15 billion, it states.

Applying the average loss per accident locally, the cost in Crawford County was in the neighborhood of $1,260,000.

road transportation, the state's role in the Civil War, the white pine era, and development of agriculture.

Others are early Michigan industries, the auto industry and development of our highways, Michigan in World War I, the 1920's and the depression, Michigan's arsenal of democracy, and the changing face of Michigan since World War II.

Weeks said the Historymobile is being sent to counties throughout Michigan as a free service of the Michigan Historical Commission.

It is being brought to Grayling through cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce and Board of Education whose members serve as hosts and hostesses assisting Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Carter, the Historymobile operators. Local arrangements are under the direction of Joseph Stripe.

This year, the mobile museum will visit 54 counties in all sections of Michigan including the Upper Peninsula, where it will be on display from Memorial Day until after Labor Day.

Last year, it traveled 1,500 miles, visited 59 Michigan communities, and was seen by more than nearly 120,000 persons during its 230-day season. On Saturday and Sunday, members of the Grayling Women's Club will act as hostesses at the showing with members of the Grayling High School Senior Class acting as hosts on Monday and Tuesday.
